

	1
Creation of graph using KidPix	Student created a graph but did not use ocean animals, or did not match the number of animals drawn to the number written.	Student created a picture with one number matching the graph information.	Student created a graph using two different types of ocean animals and represented the groups of animals with the correct number in an addition problem.
Sentence describing graph	Student attempted to write a sentence.	Student wrote a sentence with the majority of the words written correctly. May have some errors in spelling or punctuation.	Student wrote a sentence beginning with a capital letter, using correct spelling, and ending with a period.
Demonstration of ocean knowledge	Student did not use animals that would be found on a ocean or did not make the appropriate surroundings for an ocean..	Student used ocean animals or ocean surroundings in their picture but did not use both.	Student created a picture using ocean pictures and ocean surroundings.
Computer Use	Student created their picture with great difficulty.	Student created a picture but relied on outside help.	Student created a picture independently.
Advanced Computer Use	Student was not able to save their work.	Student was able to save work with a little assistance.	Student saved work into their personal folder on the server and gave the picture a title.